CORAM: A.S.OKA, J.
DATED: JULY 28, 2006.

P.C.:

1. On the oral prayer made by Shri Pitale appearing for the Appellants, Second Appeal is restored. The Trial Court decreed the suit for perpetual injunction filed by the Respondent-Plaintiff and the decree has been confirmed by the Appellate Court.

2. After having heard Shri Pitale for the Appellants and after perusing the findings recorded by the Courts below, I find that the concurrent findings of fact are based on oral and documentary evidence on record. There is no legal infirmity. Second Appeal is dismissed with no order as to costs.
